

Celebrating Partnerships: 2015 NACME Continuum Meeting

Falls Church Marriott, Fairview Park
Falls Church, VA

October 13-14, 2015

Corporate Sponsor

NORTHROP GRUMMAN

The logo for Northrop Grumman, featuring the company name in a bold, italicized, blue sans-serif font. Below the text is a thick, blue, curved line that starts under the 'N' and ends under the 'M', arching upwards in the middle.

NACME NEXT Five-Year Framework

Aileen Walter

Vice President, Scholarships and University
Relations & Corporate Internships
NACME, Inc.

Lessons Learned

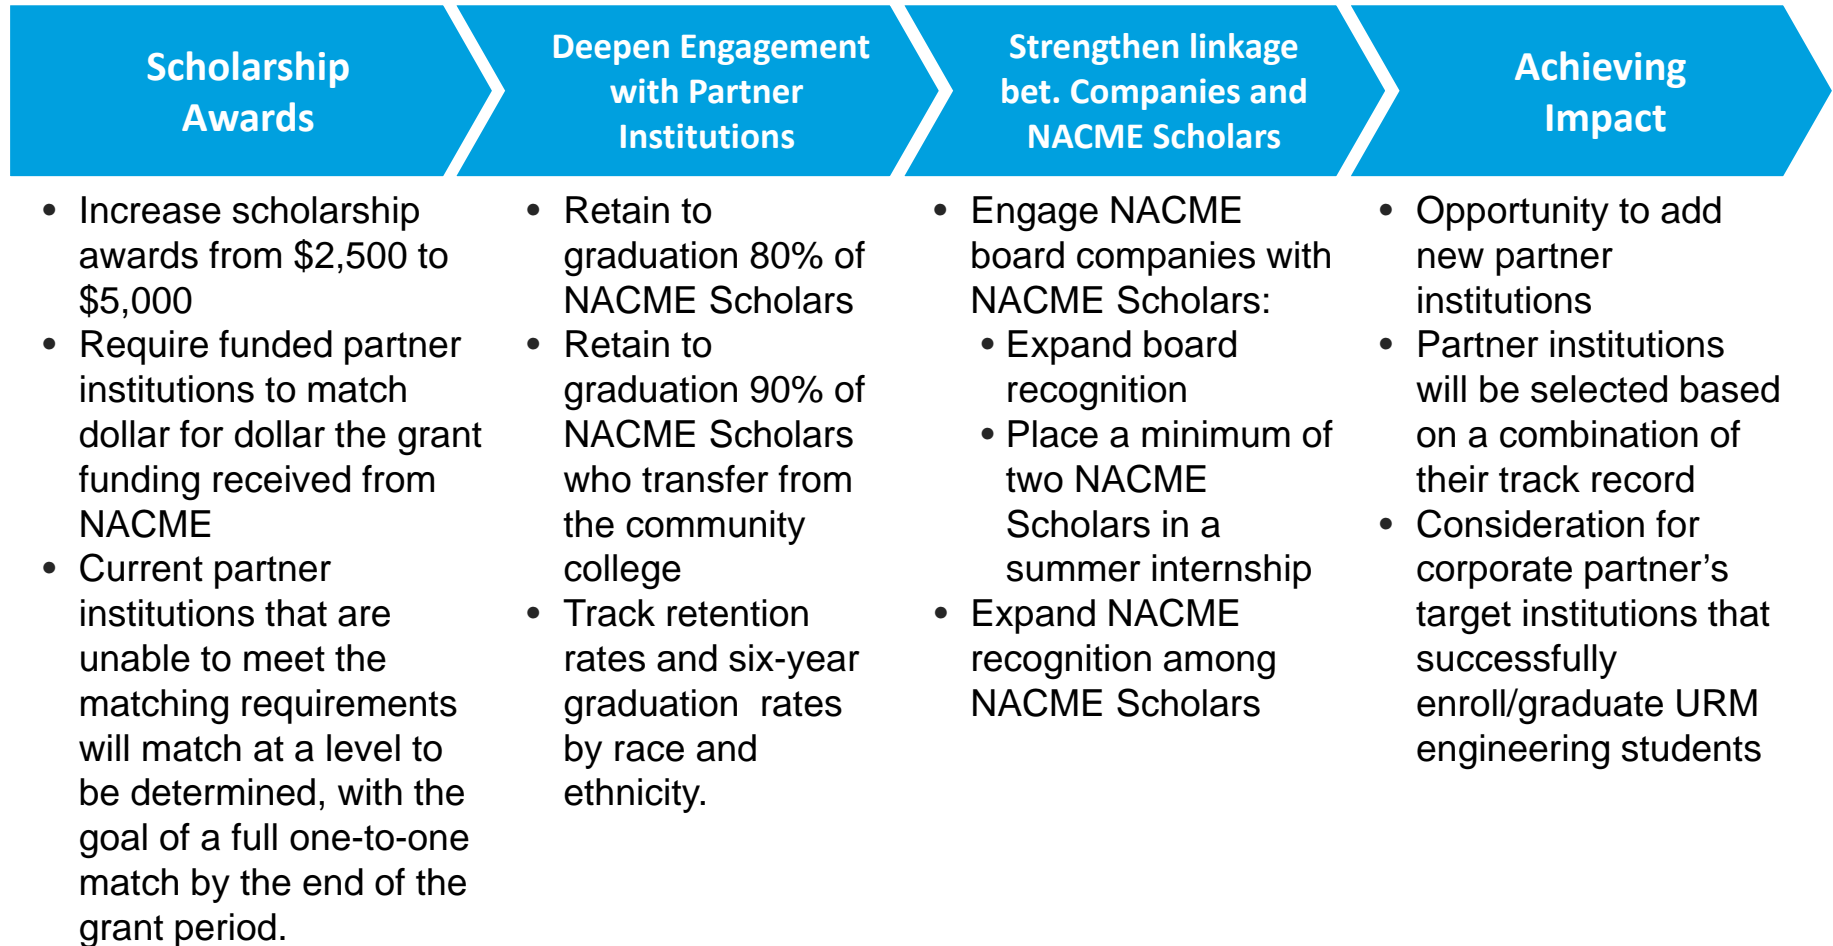

- Board companies continue to be:
 - Aligned on providing support for students to improve persistence and graduation rates
 - Believe student network and university relationships are a core asset
 - Aligned on providing students with career opportunities at board companies
- Areas for Improvement:
 - Is the NACME Scholarship amount enough given the rising cost of education?
 - Is NACME serving students with most need and potential?
 - Leverage opportunities to provide access to corporate mentorship
 - Provide greater on-campus connections with companies
 - Leverage partnerships with student-focused/led organizations
 - Desire for NACME to partner more closely with company HR teams on recruiting logistics

NACME Next Five-Year Framework

- To increase scholarship awards from $2,500 up to a maximum of $5,000 per student by 2020
- To deepen engagement with university partners
- To strengthen the linkage between board companies and NACME Scholars

NACME Scholars Program

Framework for Next Five Years

Questions for Break-Out Session

- What are the responses to increasing the NACME Scholarship award from $2,500 to $5,000 for each NACME Scholar?
 - Awarding larger grants to fewer students
- What are the implications for a matching grant requirement for your institution?
- How can NACME deepen engagement between NACME Scholars and board companies?
- How can NACME deepen engagement with NACME Scholars?

A large, light blue world map is centered on the page, serving as a background for the 'Q&A' text. The map shows the outlines of continents and oceans in a slightly darker shade of blue.

Q&A